Prayer Shawl Ministry: Prayer shawls are a beautiful way to support someone who is sick, grieving or struggling in any way. Companions on the Journey has handmade shawls which were prayed over by our group and blessed by Father Greg. We have them for men as well as women. You can call Jennifer 814-864-4303 or Sandra 814-864-6850 or see us at Mass.

Fr. Greg continues to relax and regain his strength with family by his side.

The thoughtful cards he has received remind him that we are here and continue to pray for his recovery from surgery.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

— Father John Muir C.L.P.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING WIS 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Our wisdom writer teaches us that God did not create death, rather, death entered the world from the envy of the devil. How should a Christian think about death?

SECOND READING 2 COR 8:7, 9, 13-15

Paul encourages the community of believers in Corinth to share with others out of their abundance as a means of establishing equality. What could you share with others among your family and friends this week?

GOSPEL READING MK 5:21-43

Mark presents us with independent healing stories of how faith in Jesus saves. What needs healing in your life?

Today's Peter's Pence Collection supports the charitable works of our Holy Father, Pope Francis, the successor of St. Peter, as he responds to some of the most urgent needs of people throughout the world, including relief to victims of natural disasters such as earthquakes and floods. Peter's Pence also helps our Holy Father support seminaries and religious houses, orphanages, AIDS treatment centers, and other medical facilities in developing nations, as well as many other charitable works. There is a separate basket for this collection. Thank you for your generosity.

Prayer of Thanksgiving for Freedom

Freedom is enshrined in our US Constitution. The First Amendment of our constitution protects our freedom of speech. However, our speech may not infringe upon another's freedom. Freedom does have its limits. And we must protect everyone's freedoms, not just ours. On this 4th of July, let us remember from whom all our freedoms originate, our good and gracious God.

Let us pray...

*God, giver of all good gifts,
 Help us to be thankful for rest and food,
 and remember that, in all we do or say,
 you are with us, here this day.
 We are thankful for all you do
 and for everything you have given us.
 But above all we are thankful for our freedoms
 and the ability to protect others' freedom.
 We are free because of you.
 We ask for your continued blessing
 on all your creation.
 Through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
 Amen.*
