The starving Israelites found their physical salvation in manna, "a food unknown to your fathers."

We find our spiritual salvation
in the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ,
a food unknown to too many souls.

Blessed are we to partake of the Bread of Life.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – John 6:51–58

When I was a young altar server, I once overheard two very different comments about the Eucharist. One person asked, “Is Father distributing the bread or the wine?” Later, another asked, “Can you go get Jesus from the tabernacle?” Same parish, same Mass, but two very different ways of speaking. I pondered: So, is it bread that we pretend is Jesus? Or is Jesus a tiny white thing in a box? I was utterly confused.

This Feast of Corpus Christi is an excellent time to think about how we should speak about the Eucharist. In today’s Gospel, Jesus declares: “My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.” (John 6:55) His words scandalized his listeners, who feared cannibalism, and even today puzzle many, who reduce them to metaphor. Both miss the truth.

The Church gives us better words that honor Jesus’ words in the Gospel. After the consecration, we do not call it “bread” or “wine.” Nor do we say, “a piece of Jesus” or even “Jesus.”

We say: the Eucharist. We say: the Body and Blood of Christ. We say: the Real Presence. We say: the Most Blessed Sacrament. These words safeguard the astonishing reality that Christ himself is truly present, whole and entire, under the appearances of bread and wine.

If we speak well about the Eucharist, we will think more clearly and believe more deeply. And if we believe more deeply, we will adore more truly the One who gives himself to us – not bread, not wine, but Jesus Christ himself, whole and entire.

Catholics throughout the Diocese of Erie are invited to participate in “We Hold These Truths,” a national initiative leading into America’s 250th anniversary. As the bishops prepare to consecrate the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on June 11, parishioners are encouraged to participate in Eucharistic adoration and acts of mercy throughout the weeks ahead. Individuals, families and parish groups are invited to report their hours of adoration and works of mercy through the diocesan website as we join Catholics across the country in prayer for healing and unity. Visit www.ErieRCD.org/250.html for resources and opportunities to participate.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments- Teach Children to Protect Themselves at Home

Keeping kids safe starts at home. Talk to your children about simple ways they can protect themselves:

Know who's at the door –

Never open it for strangers.

Keep personal info private –

Don't share your name, address, or phone number with anyone you don't know.

Emergency contacts –

Make sure your child knows how to reach you and call 911 if needed.

Safe boundaries –

teach them to say "no" to anything that makes them uncomfortable.

Online safety –

Remind them not to share personal details or passwords online.

Open conversations build confidence and help kids make smart choices when you're not around.

FUN FACT!

Did you know that Pope Leo was spotted doing the '6-7' meme?

A group of young Catholics taught Pope Leo XIV to do the viral "6-7" motion, briefly replicating an internet trend and meme that has baffled many above the age of 16 for over a year. The pope, amused, imitated their gesture—two upturned palms alternately rising and falling—and said, "6-7." The idea behind teaching Leo the viral gesture was to make him feel closer to the kids. Happy 6-7!

How Corpus Christi is Celebrated

Corpus Christi is a very important day in the Catholic Church. On this day, many towns have a special procession. People walk through the streets, singing and praying. The consecrated host (the Eucharist) is carried in a monstrance. This is a beautiful, often golden, container. At the end of the procession, a special blessing called Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given.

This year, several parishes are participating in Eucharistic processions, including St. Joseph BOL and St. Peter Cathedral in Erie and The Epiphany of the Lord Parish in Meadville.

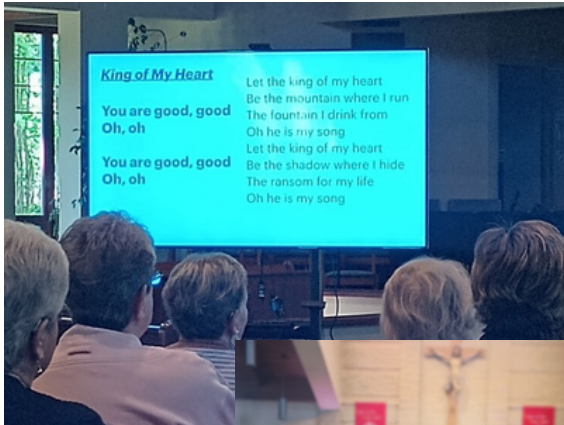

THANK YOU STEVE ANGRISANO!

Milestone Anniversary Celebrations

Each year, the Diocese of Erie is honored to celebrate milestone anniversaries with couples throughout our 13-county diocese. Couples celebrating their 25th, 40th, 50th, 60th or 60+ anniversary are invited to take part in this special recognition of the Sacrament of Marriage and their commitment to one another.

This year, due to unforeseen medical circumstances for multiple members of our staff, we are unable to host the traditional diocesan celebratory Mass and reception. In lieu of diocesan, in-person celebrations, we are offering all celebrating couples a certificate and letter from Bishop Persico, along with an invitation to next year's in-person event. To request a certificate and letter from the Bishop, please visit www.eriercd.org/familylifeoffice/anniv.html. Certificates may also be requested by phone at 814-824-1210.

Staying safe online:

Impersonation scams are on the rise

Fake job scams are now the third most common scam worldwide, and the same techniques are used to target employees at work. Scammers may pose as recruiters, vendors, executives, or IT staff—even using deepfake voices or video that sound slightly “off.” They often build trust over time before asking for sensitive information such as IDs, banking details, passwords, or one-time verification codes. Any request that feels rushed, unusually generous, or confidential is a red flag—pause and verify through a known, trusted channel. Here is a one-hour webinar on spotting scams: <https://youtu.be/QY8s1iKKiQA?si=oib2M9FTk-j7WbkW>.

The Parish Office will be closed Thursday, June 11. During the summer months please call ahead before visiting the parish during the week to make sure someone is in the office. Thank you.
