QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Malachi 3:19-20a

The prophet Malachi tells us that those who “fear” the Lord will be spared at God’s coming judgment. What does it mean to “fear the Lord”?

SECOND READING 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Paul gave the Thessalonians some very practical advice: work quietly and eat your own food! Are you open to taking advice from a loved one?

GOSPEL READING Luke 21:5-19

Jesus forewarned his followers that they will be persecuted for their faith in him, even with relatives and friends. How do you support friends and co-workers who are fellow believers? ©LPI

Low Gluten hosts are available.

If you or someone in your family is sensitive to gluten, please talk to Msgr. Rubino or Deacon Tom for details about receiving a low gluten host during Mass.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

November 16, 2025 Luke 21:5-19
Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a kid growing up in New England, I’d occasionally go on a whale watch. Once we went out with calm waters and clear skies. But on the way back in, the sea got rough. I was just a kid, and I remember thinking we should turn left or right toward the shoreline I could see. But the pilot of the boat kept going straight — right into the waves — focused on a small, discouragingly distant lighthouse. Even when it flickered in and out of sight, he stayed the course. He knew where he was going.

That image comes to mind when I hear Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel regarding false messiahs: “Do not follow them” (Luke 21:8). In times of chaos or uncertainty, there are always voices offering easier routes, promising false safety, claiming to speak for God. But Jesus isn’t found in the loudest voice or the nearest shoreline. He is steady, like a lighthouse in the storm.

The tribulation of which Jesus speaks — it’s real. It happened to the Temple, it happened to him, it happens in the Church, and it will come to each of us. But the command is not to panic. It’s to endure. To keep steering toward him. Faith isn’t about having all the answers or dodging every wave. It’s about knowing where the lighthouse is — and trusting it enough to keep going, especially when false safety beckons us to stop.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

A Family Perspective

Parenting is challenging with so many conflicting voices and influences. In today's gospel, Jesus encourages parents to bravely give testimony and trust that He will provide the "wisdom" needed to be good parents. Remember, you are not alone in this journey; a loving Father is standing with you.

Give the Gift of a Strong Marriage This Christmas

Next retreat: February 6-8, 2026 at St. Mark Catholic Center, Erie. This weekend retreat fulfills diocesan marriage prep requirements and welcomes Catholic and interfaith couples.
