GOSPEL MEDITATION - January 4, 2026, The Epiphany of the Lord Matthew 2:1-12

When I was 22, I went on a pilgrimage to Rome for the Jubilee Year of 2000. I was traveling light with just a backpack, one blue shirt and black pants, little money, and no Italian. I had a few close friends and one goal: to reach the Eternal City. Despite the challenges and deprivations, I felt alive in a way I had never known before. When do you feel most alive? I'd wager it's not when you're most comfortable or surrounded by stuff. Rather, it's when your life is aimed at something great; when you're on a meaningful and challenging journey with good friends.

That's the image the Magi give us in today's Gospel. They set out from the East not with certainty, but with hope. They study the signs, discipline their attention, and journey together, offering the best they have when they find the newborn King.

The Church gives us their story at the start of the year to reawaken something in us. We are not meant to drift. We're meant to journey as pilgrims. The Jubilee Year of 2025 may have ended, but our pilgrimage has not. Like the magi, the closer we get to Christ, the more alive we become. — Father John Muir ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Isaiah 60:1-6

Isaiah prophesies a coming of age when the glory of the Lord would shine upon Israel and their hearts would throb with joy. Can you share an experience that brought you deep joy and happiness?

SECOND READING EPH 3:2-3a, 5-6

Paul tells the Ephesians that the Holy Spirit revealed to him that all believers in Jesus (Jew and Gentile alike) were coheirs and members of the same body. Have you ever felt like an outsider who was welcomed by others?

GOSPEL READING MT 2:1-12

In the story of the birth of Jesus, Matthew contrasts the fear and concern of King Herod with the joy and praise of the Magi. What feelings does the season of Christmas evoke for you?

Psalm 29:1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10;

Some ideas to help you celebrate Epiphany:

- Chalk your door: Write the year over your door using chalk, like "20CMB26" (CMB is for the Three Wise Men, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar), to bless your home for the new year.
- Move the Nativity figures: In a religious celebration, you can move the Three Wise Men figures closer to the baby Jesus in your Nativity scene and have them "arrive" on Epiphany.

Storytelling and creative activities

- Read an Epiphany story or poem: Share the story of the Wise Men's journey to Bethlehem with your family.
- Host a "Twelfth Night" meal: Gather for a meal and tell the story of the Magi visiting the Christ-child.
- Use your imagination: Some families use creative ways to tell the story. For example, have members dress up as the Wise Men to retell the story of their journey.

BOOK OF PRAYER INTENTIONS

Look for this small book located in the Holy Family Shrine on the North side of the worship space near the prayer intention candles. Write in your general prayer requests (no names please) and they will be raised in the prayers of our parish as they are taken to the altar at Mass.
