LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When Jesus multiplied the loaves and fishes, he didn't create only what was needed — there were leftovers that could be saved and shared again.
God is lavish in bestowing His grace upon us.

BINGO AT WATERFORD FAIR

All Saints will participate in running Bingo at the Waterford Fair again this year. Mark your calendars for the week of September 7-12! The schedule will be coming out soon with the times and days All Saints will be responsible for volunteers for 3 time slots. This fundraiser directly benefits our parish.

All Saints Monthly Bingo Committee is seeking new members to assist with this parish fundraising effort.

This event takes place on the third Saturday of each month (No Bingo in December). Set up usually takes place around 4:00pm with doors opening at 5:30 (after Mass). The first Bingo game is at 6:15pm. Committee members sell game papers, work in the kitchen, call bingo numbers and verify winners, sell pull-tab instant tickets, and clean up at the end of the night. Please contact the parish office, mornings, or call Don Ghering at (814)663-1231 for more information or to volunteer. Thanks.

Thank you and Farewell to Mike Lotz, our Sunday morning pianist/organist who is moving to Florida this week. All Saints appreciates your musical talents and service to our parish.

Bring your backpack, invite a friend, and begin the school year knowing you're covered in prayer and surrounded by a caring community.

Virtues, Explained! Respect

Respect, as defined in the Oxford Dictionary, means a feeling of admiration for someone's good qualities or achievements.

This is also how we understand respect in terms of Catholic virtue. Let's consider that: the Catechism tells us that "man must...respect the particular goodness of every creature" (CCC 339) in God's world. So what are the admirable qualities shared by each and every creature? There is only one, and it's quite simple: the Creator himself. Respect, wrote the theologian Fr. Romano Guardini, is the "everyday form of reverence." Respect is an admiration of the sacredness of a thing. Respect for those made in God's image flows from our primary respect for God himself. Because of this, it is particularly important that we, as Christians, show respect for those segments of society that only we will recognize as being sacred: the unborn, the elderly, the poor, the stranger. If we do not respect them, who will?

06 • PRAYER & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Matthew 14:13-21

In his song, "Lose Yourself," the artist Eminem raps,
"the mood all changed."

We all know that moment when the mood changes, when life turns from lighthearted to deadly serious. That happens in today's Gospel. Jesus has just heard that John the Baptist, his cousin, forerunner, and friend, has been murdered. As Matthew tells us, "When Jesus heard of it, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself." Until now, he had been teaching in parables and healing quietly. But John's death signals a new phase. The shadow of the Cross begins to fall. Evil shows its teeth.

And how does Jesus respond? Not with rage or despair. He goes to a lonely place to go into deep communion with his Father. From that silence comes action. He feeds the multitude. Out of grief comes generosity. Out of sorrow, life.

This is the rhythm of every disciple's life. When tragedy or violence breaks our hearts, we face a choice. We can react, or we can retreat into prayer — like and with Christ. This is the hidden place where pain becomes compassion and compassion becomes self-gift.

Lord Jesus, when life intensifies, draw me into Your quiet strength. In that hidden place with You and the Father, turn my heartbreak into the bread of love for the world. Amen.

— Father John Muir ©LPi
