A Family Perspective

10-18-2026

Jesus was exasperated when he scolded, "Why do you put me to the test?"

It is natural for children to test their parents; this is how they learn and how we teach limits, rules, and values.

Be like Jesus in today's gospel: firm, honest, and direct.

Sanctuary Candle

THE SANCTUARY CANDLE BURNS THIS WEEK IN MEMORY OF

Paul Sieur de Marin

As requested by Bill and Lisa Lonergan.

Paul Sieur de Marin played an important role in Waterford's early history. In 1753, he led the construction of Fort de la Rivière au Bœuf (Fort Le Boeuf) as part of the French effort to establish a presence in the Ohio region.

According to the history of St. Cyprian Church, found on our parish website, Marin died at Fort Le Boeuf on October 29, 1753, at the age of 63. Historical records indicate that he received the Catholic sacraments of Penance, Extreme Unction (Anointing of the Sick), and Viaticum (Holy Communion given near death). He was buried in the cemetery at Fort Le Boeuf.

These records provide an important glimpse into the Catholic roots of Waterford, showing that the Catholic faith was present in our community as early as 1753.

As we remember Paul Sieur de Marin, we honor both his place in Waterford's history and the early Catholic heritage of our parish community.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.

Let the Quiet In: Part 2

Have you ever heard of a "technology fast?"

It's another way of creating a little quieter life and that of your child. It might mean one day of no internet (or at least Facebook perusing) or one day of no TV, or no cell phone use unless it's a true emergency. Or it may just mean not double tasking by using media while you're in the presence of another human being. If a day is too long, try an evening. Do it yourself, then challenge your child to join you.
