QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

FIRST READING Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

One of the court officials, Ebed-Melech, pleaded for Jeremiah to be rescued from a muddy cistern. How might you help a friend or colleague this week?

SECOND READING Hebrews 12:1-4

The author of Hebrews encourages his community to focus on Jesus as a way to stay strong and hopeful. Can you think of a time when your faith in Jesus helped you through a challenging circumstance?

GOSPEL READING Luke 12:49-53

Jesus forewarns his disciples that even families will be divided over his words. Growing up, how did your family deal with tension and conflict? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus says some demanding words to us this week. “Do you think I have come to establish peace on the earth?” he asks, “No, I tell you, but rather division” (Luke 12:51). He wants you and me—in fact, all the earth—to participate in the luminous glory of God. That’s why he speaks of himself as a divine arsonist. Divine fire is like a good coach: it demands the removal of all that obstructs the achievement of the lofty goal.

How is your life demanding right now? That inconvenient family situation, the unfair boss at work, the kids who reject their parents’ wishes, the nagging health issue? Maybe things would be more peaceful devoid of these seemingly arbitrary difficulties.

But for us who believe in the one who comes to set the earth of fire, we should be much more worried if he stops demanding so much from us. In fact, let’s thank him for it. He sees how glorious we can become.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Rediscover Your Marriage

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) simply means 'rediscovery'. The program offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse and a loving relationship in your marriage. Thousands headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending.

A Family Perspective

Today, Jesus warns us that His Word will create conflict between parents and children. In a permissive society that promotes individualism and consumerism, parents must steadfastly teach and embody the gospel values of respect, service to others, forgiveness, generosity, and compassion. A Christian family is a countercultural family.

Glinodo Goat Fest

The Benedictine Sisters of Erie invite you to the third Glinodo Goat Fest, 6270 East Lake Rd., Erie, on Saturday, Aug. 23 from 1-4 p.m. Our friends from Let's Goat Buffalo and Rosemary and Pine will be on scene helping us clear out invasive species from Glinodo's creek side trail. This event is free, family-friendly, and open to all. Come see the goats working, and while you're here, join us for a storybook trail (from local author Heather Cash), nature art, games and snacks. Join us for this celebration of the Earth and our connection to it. See the poster on our bulletin
