GOSPEL MEDITATION – April 12, 2026

2nd Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy) John 20:19-31

“Then he said to Thomas, ‘Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.’”
(John 20:27)

In my early 20s, I volunteered at a parish youth group. I witnessed teens encountering Jesus with a fresh, romantic wonder that reminded me of my own teenage conversion. But something had changed in me. I was quietly jaded and cynical. When teens shared stories of encountering Christ, I’d want to sarcastically murmur, “Well, good for you.” I had grown suspicious of the zeal I once knew.

Then we brought the group on a pilgrimage. I was standing in an old church in France, ignoring a long-winded tour guide. I found myself before a crucifix. In that moment, I heard something, not audibly, but unmistakably in my heart: “I came to be your friend... and you wish to be my enemy? Why do you stand far from me? I suffer gladly for you. I was pierced for you. Why do you run from me?” My heart opened. I saw how cold and cynical I had become. But Jesus had not given up on me. He had returned, and his mercy broke through.

So I can relate to the scoffing — and transformation — of Thomas when the Risen Jesus presents his wounds for inspection. Thomas is not simply doubting; he is guarded, suspicious, even cynical. But Jesus comes to him. No lecture. Just understanding and mercy. He invites Thomas to touch his wounds. This burns away his cynicism like the morning mist.

Divine Mercy Challenge: This week, rejoice with someone who is newly alive in faith. If your own heart has grown skeptical or tired, ask Jesus to help you. He will.

— Father John Muir ©LPI

OUTDOOR CLEANUP OF THE PARISH GROUNDS

Your help to make OUR PARISH grounds beautiful would be greatly appreciated.

Tuesday, April 14th starting at 5:00pm to address any remaining tasks to tidy up the parish grounds after winter. Activities range from picking up sticks on the lawn (a fun task for children!) and clearing leaves around the building, to more intensive tasks such as moving sod and dirt from snowplowing damage in the parking lot. Teens need service hours?

FOOD PANTRY NEWS

The Waterford and Summit Food Pantries could both use dish soap and crackers. Any type is welcomed. They can be placed in the blue tubs by the entrance doors in the gathering space.

FAMILY TIME

The liturgical calendar by St. John Paul II reminds us to celebrate the overwhelming mercy of Jesus Christ. The "Divine Mercy Chaplet" is traditionally prayed at 3:00pm (the "Hour of Great Mercy". A regular rosary is used to keep count, and we pray it because we trust in Jesus' love and forgiveness.

How to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet

Begin with Sign of the Cross

1. Say the Our Father
2. Optional Opening Prayers - St. Faustina's Prayer for Sinners (omit for children)
3. Say the Hail Mary
4. Say the Apostles Creed
5. Say the Eternal Father Prayer

Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

6. At each decade, one of the Sorrowful Mysteries is announced; The Eternal Father Prayer is prayed The following prayer is said (repeat 10 x)

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world. (when saying the chaplet with young children it is perfectly acceptable to have them say this prayer once during each decade instead of 10 times, at least in the beginning).

7. Conclude with Holy God (Repeat 3 x)

Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

★ Introduce your children or grandchildren to this prayer by watching this animated guide, The Divine Mercy Chaplet for Kids accessible on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cEbdRfbiAdU&t=204s>. In this sweet thirteen minute video Sr. Faustina leads a group of children in praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The word of the prayers appear on the video so children can pray along.

CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS- CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH: WHO IS A MANDATED REPORTER?

A mandated reporter is required by Pennsylvania law and the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children to report suspected or disclosed cases of child abuse to ChildLine or law enforcement. Mandated reporters in our diocese are people who hold positions of trust in our schools, parishes, agencies, and institutions. All clergy, employees and volunteers working/serving in our parishes, schools or agencies are mandated both legally and morally to report any reasonably suspected or known child abuse to ChildLine, the local law enforcement, or other appropriate agency. Visit www.eriecld.org/childprotection/ to learn the specific reporting procedures required by the diocese.
