GOSPEL MEDITATION

October 11, 2026
Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus compares God's kingdom to a wonderful wedding feast—but some of those invited are too distracted by everyday concerns to come.

We can fall into the same trap. Our responsibilities, schedules, and worries can become excuses for putting off a deeper relationship with Christ. The problem is not that we choose something evil, but that we allow other desires and responsibilities to distract us from an amazing opportunity. God's invitation is already before us, yet sometimes our hearts and attention are elsewhere.

*The feast is ready.
The invitation remains.*

THIS WEEK, ASK YOURSELF:
What is distracting me from responding more fully to Jesus?

May we recognize the gift God is offering us and respond—not someday, but today.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

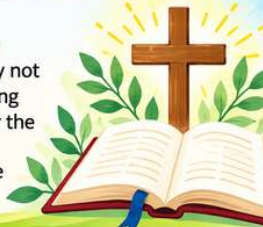

Parenting Pointers

Let the quiet in: Part 1.

There is a lot of noise in our world. Although God may not come into you or your child's life like the bolt of lightning that struck St. Paul, we often need some quiet to hear the voice of God. TV, cell phones, computer games, and headphones, can crowd out that quiet that lets God be heard. Create some quiet times for your child.

ONLINE GIVING !

ST. TERESA OF ÁVILA

OCTOBER 15
Virgin & Doctor of the Church

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515–1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun, mystic, author, and poet whose deep love of God transformed the spiritual life of the Church.

A great reformer of the Carmelite Order, St. Teresa founded convents throughout Spain and worked to restore a life centered on prayer, simplicity, and contemplation.

Her spiritual writings, especially The Interior Castle and The Way of Perfection, continue to guide Christians seeking a deeper relationship with God.

In 1970, St. Teresa became one of the first women to be named a Doctor of the Church.

Sr. Rita from The Ark and The Dove (Pittsburgh) will recall the sovereign move of the Holy Spirit that occurred in Pittsburgh in 1957 and spread throughout the world. This happened as people sought an intimate encounter with Jesus. A life-changing encounter with the Jesus through the Holy Spirit is meant for every time and for every person who desires it! Sr. Rita served as the Administrator of The Ark and The Dove Worldwide – Home of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. We pray that each person is touched and transformed!
