Inspiration of the Week

The master rewards the latecomers with the same wage as those who labored all day, upsetting the construct of who deserves what – and why. May we never seek to be the judge of what others deserve. May we labor in our vineyard with joy and gratitude.

A Family Perspective †

SEPTEMBER 20, 2026

*“Why are you idle?
Go into my vineyard.”*
Matthew 20:6

Today, Jesus reminds us that our family is the vineyard entrusted to our care, as mentioned in today’s Gospel.

Strong and loving families are built by “laborers” who actively work on their relationships, not by spectators who merely watch from a distance.

We are God’s vineyard.

May we tend our family vineyard with love each day.

Marriage Moment

SEPTEMBER 20, 2026

Laugh together this week. Watch a funny TV program or movie, tell each other a silly joke, play a practical joke that won’t backfire, go to a comedy club, or just reminisce about the crazy things you’ve done during your life together.

Laughing heals and bonds.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

September 20, 2026
Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 20:1-16

Every December, the priests of my diocese gather for a Christmas dinner with our bishop. Nearly 200 of us in one room: newly ordained and long retired, pastors of large parishes and quiet confessors, men full of energy and others moving more slowly. Some carry visible success; others bear hidden wounds. It is a tapestry of vocations and lives. When the bishop thanks us, I am always moved. For a moment, none of our differences matter. What matters is that we belong to one another.

I usually leave that evening with a deep sense of peace, but also with a sober realization. Nothing drains joy from the vineyard of the Lord faster than comparison. The quiet habit of measuring, ranking, and resenting can creep in even among those who sincerely serve God.

That is what Jesus exposes in today's parable of the workers in the vineyard. The early laborers are not upset because they were treated unjustly; they are angry because others were treated generously. Their resentment blinds them to the gift already in their hands. When the landowner asks, "Are you envious because I am generous?" he names the real wound.

This tension echoes throughout salvation history: the elder brother resenting the prodigal, the faithful servant scorning the latecomer. Jesus does not deny the labor of those who have borne the heat of the day, but he refuses to let God's mercy become a zero-sum game.

In the end, the vineyard's reward is not about fairness but belonging. The joy offered is communion with a generous Father, who delights in gathering early and late, strong and weak, into one household of grace.

— Father John Muir

Challenge:

Resist the temptation to compare, and instead rejoice in the generosity of God. Be grateful that each of us has been invited into His vineyard.

*Forgive
not your heart,
but with your heart,
as the Lord
has forgiven you.*

Colossians 3:13
